Miss Mattie Irene Barclay, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Barclay, and Mr. Chasman P. Gonzalez, were married Tuesday afternoon by Rev. Father Fullerton in the rectory of St. Michael.

The bride was accompanied from her home to the rectory by her pastor, Rev. Mr. Rogers of the Gadsden street M. E. church, her grandfather, Mr. H. C. Von Werder, and her two sisters, Miss Willie and Miss Katie Von Werder. At the rectory they were met by the bride's father, the bridegroom and his father Mr. M. F. Gonzalez, his uncle Mr. Tino Gonzalez, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Gonzalez, Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Renshaw, and these witnessed the ceremony.

After they had been pronounced husband and wife, the bridal party returned to the home of the bride's parents 1009 East Jackson, where Rev. Mr. Rogers offered prayer for the continued happiness and spiritual welfare of the newly wedded couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Gonzalez left on the 6:30 train last evening for their home in Bohemia, Fla., accompanied by the groom's father.

FOR MRS. WHITFIELD AND MISS WALKER.

Mrs. Thomas V. Hannah entertained the Nomads very delightfully Monday evening in compliment to her charming house guests, Mrs. L. B. Whitfield of Montgomery and Mrs. Hannah's sister Miss Walker.

Mrs. Whitfield, who was Miss Vandiver daughter of Mr. W. F. Vandiver and is very prominent in Montgomery society, is at present visiting Mrs. Thomas V. Hannah but will later be the guest of Mrs. W. J. Hannah. And, during her stay in this city Mrs. Whitfield will be the recipient of all sorts of delightful attentions, complimentary not only to her lovely hostess but to her own charming personality.

Miss Walker, who has spent a delightful winter at her sister's guest, has been so frequently complimented with special attentions she seems almost like "home folks."

MEMBER, FLA. U. D. C.
TAKES EXCEPTION TO THE JOURNAL'S REPORT.

The following communication has been received with a request that it be published, which is done with pleasure as follows:

Editor Journal:

In your issue of the 6th inst. in your account of the last session of the recent convention of the State Division of the Daughters of the Confederacy, you were led inadvertently into making a statement so contrary to fact that I beg to correct the same.

Your account intimates, although a re-election of the officers of the past year would be in accordance with precedent, that during the progress of the convention a movement for the election of Mrs. R. C. Cooley to the presidency had materialized.

This statement is wholly misleading and is an injustice to the administration of Mrs. Stockbridge, who was re-elected president by acclamation with the most pronounced manifestation of popular approval ever seen in a Florida U. D. C. convention. Mrs. Cooley was the only delegate who did not rise to her feet in response to the call for a rising vote in the election, and the only suggestion of her own possible candidacy heard during the convention, came directly from this lady herself, as did probably from information of the desire of her "friends" who were conspicuous only by their absence.

This incident is made unduly prominent by the fact of your report having been reproduced in several other papers. I therefore trust you will kindly publish this correction, and at the same time allow me to thank you for the enterprise and completeness which characterized your reports of the convention.

"MEMBER OF CONVENTION FLORIDA DIVISION U. D. C."

The item referred to is probably that in the report of the election of officers at the last session of the Florida Division U. D. C. which is hereby reproduced also for the better understanding of all concerned. It appeared in the final report of the meetings published in The Journal of Saturday morning, May 6, and reads as follows: "It has been the custom to re-elect the state officers, endorsing their first year's service by giving them a second term and it was taken for granted and by Falstaff that the divine William foretold the circulation of the blood sixteen years before Harvey's discovery. Indeed the whole lecture fairly scintillated with gems of thought gathered from all points and polished and strung into a charming succession, illustrated by artistic delineations of his quotations from the casket and the court scenes in "The Merchant of Venice." Polonius's advice to Laertes, the quarrel between Hamlet and his mother, and the jests of the grave diggers; the prayer of the young Duke of Richmond before Bosworth and Henry V's own appeal to the God of battles.

These and many other pearls of wit, wisdom and sentiment, so speeded the two hours of this delightful Shakespearean event, that it seemed less than half the minutes employed. If it be true as some one has said that one finds in the Bible as in any other book, only what one takes to it, it must be admitted that Mr. Warde carries much to Shakespeare and gives much to his audience.

The convention of the Florida Division, United Daughters of the Confederacy, held in Pensacola last week, closed Friday night, and delegates from Martha Reid Chapter, of Jacksonville, have returned. Jacksonville, it would seem, got the marble heart at the close, as not a single officer was chosen from this city, and Orlando was selected as the place for the next state convention—Jacksonville Metropolis.

Young Girls

Avoid The Dangers and Sufferings of Womanhood

Many a girl who graduates from high school or female college with a brilliant record and high standing is broken down before she is twenty.

Nowadays girls are pushed to the limit of their endurance both in school and society. They must make a success—even if they are forever unfitted for the larger school of life and debarred from wedded happiness and the bliss of motherhood.

At this time of life, when just entering upon womanhood, nature makes heavy drains upon the vitality, especially at each monthly period, the most wonderful of all tonic restorative medicines for women, will tide a young girl over this trying time and bring her safely into strong, noble, beautiful womanhood.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Experience of a Beautiful High School Girl

My DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I write to see if you can suggest some means to cure me. A little more than a year ago I was sick with menstruation for the first time, and since then I have been sick all the time in some way or other and suffered with painful and irregular menstruation. I went to a summer resort for my health and was doctored all summer, but to no effect. I have not menstruated for two months and thought I would see if you could do me any good. I attend High School and would not like to miss any time if it is possible. MARION BARBER, North Adams, Mass.

Miss Barber writes again after two years

My DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Sometime ago I wrote to you for advice, being troubled with irregular and painful menstruation and womb disease. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills and using the Sanative Wash, and I am glad to say I am completely cured and have not had any sickness since. I wish to thank you for your kind advice and shall recommend your medicine to my girl friends. MARION BARBER, 101 Bracewell Ave., North Adams, Mass.

Free Advice for Young Girls

All young girls are earnestly urged to write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for advice. Thousands of women are well, strong, and beautiful to-day because they made a confidant of Mrs. Pinkham and followed her instructions at this critical time of their lives.

JAS. C. CLARKE, CANDIDATE FOR CHIEF FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Jas. C. Clarke announces in this morning's paper his candidacy for chief of the fire department, in the city election of June 6.

Mr. Clarke served for 16 years in the volunteer fire department, in various capacities, from foreman down, and he was instrumental in getting the first team of horses purchased for that department. He also raised the money for the purchase of the first fire alarm indicator in the city and he turned in the first alarm on it himself. He is a member of the theatrical stage employees union, a member of the cotton screwmen's union and foreman of the Gulf Transit Co., and his large acquaintance among the laboring men of the city will no doubt secure him a good support.
